

Ideas when talking to People

Be, look and feel your best

Make a difference and create a more meaningful life

Make more money

Build a business one time that will last for life

Create a residual income for life

Have the time to do what you want

Have more fun and excitement

Have more adventure

Be free to live and do the things you want to do

Meet more people

Have the time to properly

- take care of you

- keep up your home and personal things

- and to maintain relationships with family and friends

How would you like to have the confidence to take on anything you wanted?

Why spend your life working for someone else?

Be part of something great

Get fabulous training and mentorship

If you put 3-5 years into building a business, you would never have to work again...and be sought after for your talents

Use or develop your talents of creativity, leadership, social and teaching skills

Learn more about business, marketing and economics

Help others do the same

Help people so they will never feel dependent or trapped