

Five things you should know... about Sunrider

1) Sunrider is a manufacturer of... anti-aging and nutritional products that are...

- Very high quality
- Unique
- Life changing

Sunrider and it's owners

Sunrider is a private company and owned by Dr. and Mrs. Dr. Chen... and their 5 children

- Wendy Teng
- Reuben Chen
- Sunny Beutler
- Eric Chen
- Jonathon Chen

- Sunrider opened it's doors in 1982
  - Sunrider owns one million square feet of manufacturing facilities in the U.S.
  - Owns warehouses and offices in over 20 locations world-wide
  - Distributes into 50 countries

2) What is unique about Sunrider?

- Dr Chen and his son Eric have developed every one of our 400 + products
- The Chens have a very unique way creating products as they must all be made from herbal foods with no fillers, sugar, wheat, dairy etc.
- Their goal has always been to have the most unique, high quality products possible... and at the same time... the safest products possible
- Every product they produce is designed to regenerate and strengthen the body and be safe for anyone to use, including infants

3) What products do they produce?

- Herbal food products to nourish balance and cleanse the body
- Beverages that energize with no caffeine
- Herbal supplements to nourish body systems
- Foods of all types for snacking, supplementing your diet... to foods higher in protein that are very nutritious, safe and easy to digest
- They also produce a full range of fitness products including a workout program
- Very high quality skincare, personal care, and household products

4) The Sunrider business

- The care and opportunity Sunrider provides to their Independent Business Owners and Customers... is second to none
- Recently the whole business side of Sunrider was updated with...
  - New Training Platforms
  - New systems
  - A supportive community for consumers and business people
  - A brand new cutting edge, global marketing plan
- Sunrider was launched as a new company June 1, 2017

Sunrider contracts with Independent Business Owners (IBOs) to market their products instead of employing sales people and paying for advertising and retail space.

IBOs:

- build relationships and establish trust
- teach others about what Sunrider has to offer
- facilitate business expansion

And they can do this better than traditional business

Building a business that you own

- This business allows people who...
  - are honest
  - have a good work ethic
  - enjoy communicating with people
  - have leadership skills...to really prosper
- The direct sales industry is responsible for $180 billion in sales world wide... per year

A professional income

- Some people have the misconception that this business is about home parties and selling products. This is not the case for people who want to be a professional.
- Professionals look at this business as a way to multiply their efforts... like compound interest
- Teachers teaching others to teach
- With a business mindset, IBOs who are organized and focused... build large businesses and often expand their businesses all over the world

Compounding your efforts through others

- When speaking to others... you are not only offering them a life changing philosophy and the products to go with it, but wellness training and fabulous support
- You are also offering an opportunity that could change their life and in turn... the life of many others
- If the timing is right and if trust is established... others will join you and engage in the opportunity

3905 People

How much income would that produce?

- $3905 \times $200 \text{ per person} = $781,000 \text{ in volume}$
- Average payout would be between 5% - 10%
- That would produce between $39,050 - $78,100 in income... per month
- What if you only achieved 10% of this?

For example purposes only

The four year career

- Once the business has a foundation...most of your income will be residual... paying month after month
- With the right products and company.... this could be for life
- People who are serious, work hard for four years to build their foundation... to create something that could pay them for life... with minimal effort
